The amount of the Commission is determined on the basis of the experience of the recommended Candidate, the decisive factor is the type of position at which the Candidate was finally employed, i.e. for a Candidate recommended for the position of "mid" finally employed in the position of "senior", the commission due is as for the position "senior".

4. If different people apply for the same Candidate, the Commission will be awarded the Commission who recommended the Candidate first.

5. If the Candidate is already registered in the RITS candidate database, from a source other than the recommendation by the Recommender, the Commission is due unless the Candidate has participated in RITS recruitment processes in the last 6 months.

6. The Candidate's recommendation is valid for 24 months from the date of sending the CV by the Recommender and registering the CV in the RITS database of candidates. After this deadline, in the case of establishing cooperation or employing a recommended person, the commission for the recommendation will not be granted.

II. RULES FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE COMMAND PROGRAM

1. Every natural person who is not required to obtain a work permit in Poland has the right to participate in the Referral Program and has the right to submit any number of Candidates. The above does not apply to members of the RITS board and persons employed in managerial positions, as well as persons involved in the process of offering candidates to the client, regardless of the form of their cooperation with RITS, who cannot participate in the Referral Program.

2. By taking part in the Referral Program, you accept the Regulations.

3. To participate in the Referral Program, complete all fields of the application form and send your friend's CV via the application form at www.rits.center/system-polecen. In the form, complete the required fields and attach the Candidate's CV in order to send the recommendation, as well as mark the required consents and declarations, which is a prerequisite for his successful application of the Candidate and joining the Recommendation Program.

4. The Recommending Person is obliged to obtain prior consent of the Candidate on his recommendation as part of the Referral Program, as well as the Candidate's consent to entrust RITS with the processing of the Candidate's personal data for recruitment purposes, which is confirmed in the application form and is a prerequisite for his effective submission and accession to the Referral Program. . In the event that the Candidate does not know that his CV was sent by the Associate, did not consent to it or did not consent to the processing of his personal data, the Commission will not be due.

5. After submitting the Candidate's application, a message will be sent to the Candidate (in a copy to the Recommender) informing about his / her application, and the Candidate will be asked by RITS to grant the necessary consents to the processing of personal data for recruitment purposes or to confirm the consents given by the Recommender. If consent is not given within 21 days, the Candidate will not be a participant in RITS recruitment programs, and his data will be permanently deleted.

III. PAYMENT OF COMMISSION.

1. The commission is paid once, after the recommended by the Recommending Candidate has worked the minimum period specified in point I.2.

2. The decision on meeting the conditions of the Regulations entitling the Recommender to receive a commission is taken by RITS, informing the Recommender about it immediately.

3. If the Referrer is an Associate, the Commission will be paid:

a) if the referring Associate is employed under a contract of employment - as a one-off bonus, where the amount of the Commission is the gross amount;

b) if the referring Associate is employed under a civil law contract - as a commission for the provision of brokerage services, where the amount of the Commission is a gross amount;

c) if the referring Associate is an entrepreneur, cooperating on the basis of a B2B contract - as a commission for the provision of brokerage services, where the amount of the Commission is a gross amount, to which the value added tax will be added, if the Associate is an active taxpayer of this tax

4. The commission will be paid by the end of the month following the calendar month in which the conditions for its calculation and payment have been met. Co-workers with the status of entrepreneurs will be paid a commission based on a correctly issued and delivered invoice to RITS.
5. If the Recommending Person is not an Associate, the Commission will be paid on the basis of a contract for the provision of services (contract of mandate) prepared by RITS. The contract will be drawn up each time the conditions for receiving the Commission are met, provided that the Recommending Person who is not an Associate meets the criteria, in particular he is not required to obtain a work permit in Poland.
6. After providing information on the right to receive the Commission, the Recommending Person who is not an Associate is obliged to provide his personal data necessary to prepare the contract within 7 working days of receiving the information. If the data is not provided on the indicated date or the Recommending Person does not meet the criteria, RITS has the right not to pay the Commission.
7. Based on the data provided, RITS will prepare a contract that the Recommending Person who is not an Associate is obliged to sign. The commission will be transferred to the bank account indicated by the Recommending Person within 14 business days of signing the contract. Failure to sign and submit the agreement to RITS within 14 business days from its submission for signing means the loss of the right to the Commission.
